United States v. Amadou Ba
23 Cr. 265 (RMB)

Dear Judge Berman:

We represent Amadou Ba pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act. He is currently out on bail, and his travel is restricted to the Southern District of Texas (where he lives), and to the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York. We write to seek a temporary change in his bail conditions that would allow him to travel to the Dallas/Fort Worth area, which is in the Northern District of Texas, from August 30th to August 31st to attend a wedding. We have discussed this request with Mr. Ba's pretrial officer who points out that he has remained compliant with his bail conditions, and she does not oppose this request. We have also sought the Government's position, and they have "no objection whatsoever."

Temporary modification granted on consent.

Respectfully submitted,

Sarah M. Sacks
